

This bold and exciting series gives readers a comprehensive look at the skills, aptitude, and education required for working "on the front lines." Read fascinating bios of real life service people and their career challenges and determine if these careers are a good fit for you.

Specifications:
Ages 11-14
 32 pages, 8 x 10", full colour
$10.95 PAP

Air Force Careers by Cynthia O'Brien

Major Mary Jennings Hegar helped fight off a group of 150 Taliban soldiers while landing a U.S. air force helicopter. Compelling real life stories in this book about careers in the air force will help you picture whether one of these jobs is for you. Learn about the many careers the air force offers and the skills needed to make you the candidate with the right stuff.

ISBN 978-0-7787-8143-1 PAP

Army Careers by Sarah Eason

Do you have the necessary skills to make you a candidate for a career in the army? This informative book introduces you to the jobs armies do, what the recruiting process is like, and what it takes to make a successful "foot soldier." Profiles and real life stories of people who work in different positions in the army will help you picture whether one of these is the job for you.

ISBN 978-0-7787-8144-8 PAP

Careers in Undercover Operations by Heather C. Hudak

From forensic scientists and intelligence agents in the field to cyber action teams and counter-terror workers, this exciting book examines the kinds of work done by people in undercover operations. Special attention is given to the skills and education required to do these specialized, often secretive, jobs. Real life stories in this book about the diverse careers in special operations will help you picture whether one of these jobs is for you.

ISBN 978-0-7787-8145-5 PAP

Navy Careers by Cynthia O'Brien

From enlisted sailor to officer, full-time or reserve, joining the navy is a simple process. The harder part is choosing a career from the dozens of different options. This helpful book describes how each career in the navy works and what skills are required so you can see whether you could be a navy diver, a mass communication specialist, a craft crewman—or even a musician!

ISBN 978-0-7787-8146-2 PAP

Police Force Careers by Heather C. Hudak

Learn about the brave people who make their living protecting their fellow citizens in this essential police force careers guide. Detailed bios and descriptions of operations and incidents faced by police give readers a realistic picture of what police force workers do.

ISBN 978-0-7787-8147-9 PAP

Special Forces Careers by Sarah Eason

It takes fierce determination and expert training to be part of a special forces team. Have you got the right stuff? This compelling book looks at the work special ops members do and what kind of training and aptitude is required for various careers.

ISBN 978-0-7787-8148-6 PAP

