Be the Change!

Reading Level: Grades 2-3 | Interest Level: Grades K-3
8½ x 9½" • 24 pages

Mahatma Gandhi once said, "Be the change you want to see in the world." His empowering words are the motivation behind the inspiring Be the Change! series. Thoughtfully written text and child-centered examples introduce topics such as identifying areas for change, learning about and communicating for a cause, creating an action plan, and overcoming challenges. From starting an e-waste recycling program at school to organizing a toy and book drive for victims of natural disasters, each book includes suggestions for positive action and encourages readers to brainstorm ways they can use their interests, skills, and abilities to help. Mini-biographies highlight the efforts of forward-thinking kids who are taking action to make the world better. Readers will be empowered and inspired as they learn real-world problem-solving skills. This series provides a key read-aloud resource for teachers introducing younger students to these concepts as well as for older readers to read independently.

Get Involved!

Reading Level: Grade 4 | Interest Level: Grades 3-6
8½ x 11" • 32 pages

Get Involved! explores the world of social activism. Activists are people who want to make change for the better. They educate, agitate, and offer assistance. They also speak out for others when they cannot speak for themselves. This fascinating series will inspire students to learn about the rights all humans have as well as their responsibilities for the world, its peoples, and animals. Examples show children how to become a positive advocate and how to peacefully change the world. "Special Field Notes" sections bring the words of activists to life. Each book features: stimulating images of activists at work; "In the Trenches" biographies of actual activists, including those who became activists or were inspired to be activists as children; "Get Active!" boxes that encourage exploration and research and give students examples of everyday ways to get socially active.
